THOMASVILLE, GEORGIA, SATURDAY JULY 7, 1894.
NEW SERIES, VOL. YI-NO. 3

A NEW MARKET.

The First Car Load of Melons Just Arrived, From Thomasville.

A large load of melons has just arrived at Thomasville. They are said to be the finest melons ever brought to this city. The market is expected to open tomorrow, and the melons will be sold at prices ranging from $1 to $2 each.

PRIMARY IT IS.

Mr. Charles P. Black.

Mr. Black was arrested yesterday for attempting to elude the police. He was charged with carrying a concealed weapon. The trial is scheduled for next week.

ANOTHER BURGLARY.

Inventory Recovered, but Damage Still Unestimated.

Another burglary occurred in the early hours of this morning. The thief made off with several thousand dollars worth of jewelry and other valuables. The damage to the store was estimated at $5,000.

A LIVELY MEETING.

The Citizens' Association.

A lively meeting of the Citizens' Association was held last night. The association discussed several important issues, including the need for a new waterworks and the construction of a new school.

The Southern Express Company.

The Southern Express Company is considering the purchase of a new locomotive. The company has expressed interest in several models, including the new Type A engine.

Miller's new method.

Miller has recently developed a new method for printing newspapers. The method promises to reduce costs and improve the quality of the print.

An Appeal to All.

We urge all citizens to support the new market. The market is expected to be a major landmark in the city and will provide a venue for local farmers to sell their produce.

THOMPSON IRON WORKS.

Kosciusko A. W. Byrd was elected president of the Thompson Iron Works. The company is expected to expand its operations in the near future.

A HOME TREATMENT.

Mrs. S. H. Brown.

Mrs. S. H. Brown has developed a new home remedy for colds. The remedy involves the use of several herbs and is said to be effective.

The new paper.

The new paper started in Jacksonville and has gained a large following in the city. The paper is expected to be a major competitor in the local newspaper market.

Another Burglary.

Inventory Recovered, but Damage Still Unestimated.

Another burglary occurred in the early hours of this morning. The thief made off with several thousand dollars worth of jewelry and other valuables. The damage to the store was estimated at $5,000.

A LIVELY MEETING.

The Citizens' Association.

A lively meeting of the Citizens' Association was held last night. The association discussed several important issues, including the need for a new waterworks and the construction of a new school.

The Southern Express Company.

The Southern Express Company is considering the purchase of a new locomotive. The company has expressed interest in several models, including the new Type A engine.

Miller's new method.

Miller has recently developed a new method for printing newspapers. The method promises to reduce costs and improve the quality of the print.

An Appeal to All.

We urge all citizens to support the new market. The market is expected to be a major landmark in the city and will provide a venue for local farmers to sell their produce.