B. A. PEAGERSON, MT VERNON, III.

An action was noted, when receiving the services of the undertakers, when sitting at a weekday table, or when conversing with the the real Nicholsman, he was the same Jesus.

When he stood on the bed hungry on the road side, or when conversing with the humble woman at the well, or when bearing his counties by the same Jesus.

He lived for others. He sought not his own life, but he was His day. Jesus Christ left a legacy to mankind.

It provides that whenever we follow him on his footsteps with heart and understanding will also have communicated him to the spirit of the Lord. Petter's Weekly Herald.

When we have this spirit all eating, Jesus, being, sinners, etc. are eliminated from our hearts, which is kines. We will then encourage and he a kind of woman. God speed and care for their then instead of trying to keep their influence for God. We have been greatly pleased.

Recently received in our churches, having been received by the elders of First Methodist church, Rev. J. N. Grant and by Rev. T. L. Stanton, etc. no one ever receives your boys and girls that will even be a burning pit if not convinced of the soul.

His love and working for the salvation of the poor lost sinner at home, and when I have been there, in a few cases was only the interest of the lost, only for God's glory at home.

All that can come and hear three good men, I recommend this. God's blessing be upon you. Will have a special service and more than our people's peace, as you see my God bless you all.

Should your home be on fire you would not be rejoiced to hear me. I have been almost in the same condition of our own lives.

He never makes any mistakes, and if the house be used to a woman. God speed you on your way for them that is not the same Jesus.

Should your home be on fire you would not be rejoiced to hear me. I have been almost in the same condition of our own lives.

He never makes any mistakes, and if the house be used to a woman. God speed you on your way for them that is not the same Jesus.

The Lord of this world of souls Most bountiful and safe.

The golden arm to rule by day. The sun, stars and moon, etc. are marching far from the same Jesus.

In darkened lands or parks.

In darkness no man sleep. To make one, Savior, more and more.

A light along the way.

To many a helpless hand. A kindly word of advice,

Tell them of the mighty friend

The golden sun to rule by day, hut souls are marching far from the same Jesus.

To tell them of the mighty friend, etc.

W. B. MAYERS, SHERIDAN, KY.

Some this shine out like beacons

Some seem but candles small But if we truly shine for Him. The Lord has need of all,

One of the most unselfish

Amath Bell Adams

36 Church St.